

North of Scotland Centre for Applied Nursing Midwifery and Allied Health Professions Research

NMAHP Research in Grampian: Let's get going!

Dugald Baird Centre, Aberdeen Maternity Hospital

Wednesday 11th September

Come and join us if you are a nurse, midwife or AHP with an interest in research/evaluation/quality improvement/evidence-based practice

Find out what's going on in NHS Grampian, how you can get involved and let us know how we can best support NMAHP research

Draft Programme

12.30	Lunch & arrival
12.55	Welcome	Kay Cooper & Angela Kydd Clinical Professors
1.00	Overview of methods of evaluation including interactive workshop on choosing the best design	TBC
2.00	Quality Improvement	TBC
2.30	Interactive session on developing NMAHP research culture in Grampian (with tea & coffee)	TBC
2.50	Personal research journeys Hear how local NMAHPs got involved in research and what they're doing – get inspired!	Local NMAHPs
3.30	What can NoSCAR do for you?	Kay Cooper & Angela Kydd Clinical Professors
3.30	Open Discussion
3.45	Close

Please register at: at <https://www.eventbrite.co.uk/e/nmahp-research-in-grampian-lets-get-going-tickets-62253371510>

Further details or enquiries: noscar@rgu.ac.uk